

Dear FIP Member,

As you may already be aware, the Curriculo Solutions, UK, leadership training programme “Pharmacists for the future” has recently been awarded the FIP Seal. The programme has also been recommended by the immediate past president of FIP’s Young Pharmacists Group:

“The Curriculo programme provides in depth training on pertinent topics such as how to ace an interview, how to effectively work in a team, developing a career plan, how to align your ambitions with employers, and much more.” — Renly Lim, MPharm, PhD, research fellow, University of South Australia

You can read about the programme content here.

FIP and Curriculo have negotiated a special organisational rate for FIP members in different regions, according to the World Bank country classifications by income level (2021-2022). This offer (see Table below) is available until 31 Dec 2022.

World Bank country income classification	Price* per person (* for a minimum of 50 purchases)
	In-training pharmacists	Qualified pharmacists
Low	€39/	€120
Lower – middle	€85	€187
High	€93	€200

You may wish to know that the next cohort starts training on 18 July with an introductory session at 12.00 BST. For further information, please email me at karen.glen@curriculosolutions.com

Best wishes,
